"The blend of experience and pleasure, and also cordiality and entertainment, all together - is the winning blend in this kind of music that is so beautiful!" Prof. Aryeh Verdi for the ensemble's participation in 'Intermezzo with Eric'.

Di Gasn Trio (Quartet).

From the Yiddish language - 'The Streets' Trio', is an Israeli band, which brings new original, lively and colorful compositions and interpretations to traditional Klezmer, Balkan and Israeli folklore music. Di Gasn Trio have great passion for preserving authentic Balkan and Klezmer music, generating excitement and pure joy during their performance, which carries the audience away.

The band was founded by Clarinetist Gal Klein and Accordionist Yanush Hurwitz in 2012, while studying at the Jerusalem Music Academy and turned into a quartet in 2017 including contrabass and percussion musicians. Di Gasn Trio have performed in numerous venues and countries, including classical, jazz, indie and world music festivals including (partial list): 'Klang Basel' Festival (Switzerland), Idan Raichel Live Festival (Israel), Internationales Klezmer Festival Fürth (Germany), Cosmopolis Festival (Greece) and the National Chinese Theater (NCPA, Beijing), Expo Exhibition (Kazakhstan) the National Book Affair of Taiwan (TIBE, Taipei). The Band has recorded 3 albums.

Band Members are:

Gal Klein - Clarinet | Yanush Hurwitz - Accordion | Asaf Rabi - Contrabass | Ori Naveh - Percussion
